Welcome unit – Welcome to our blog

 PB4 & PB8

STELLA: Hi, Meera. Did you have a good holiday?

MEERA: Yeah, great, thanks.

STELLA: I didn't see you online – how come?

MEERA: It's because we didn't have any Wi-Fi, but I can show you the pictures if you want? Oh, look! Here's Lenny!

STELLA: Hi, Lenny. How are things?

LENNY: Good thanks, Stella. Are you ready for the new school year?

STELLA: Yeah, I am.

LENNY: What is it, Meera?

MEERA: It's about a new school blog.

STELLA: Oooh.

MEERA: I'm sending you the information now.

LENNY: There's a competition for the best blog in school.

STELLA: Wow! And there's a prize! Shall we try and start one?

MEERA: That's a great idea, but what can we write about?

LENNY, MEERA AND STELLA: Hmm.

LENNY: Oh! Can we write about sport and technology?

STELLA: If you want, but we can write about anything we like.

MEERA: Well, it's our first day back at school, so let's write about that.

STELLA: Nice idea!

LENNY: Great!

STELLA: Let's meet outside school at four o'clock.

LENNY: Yeah!

Unit 1 – Time for television

 PB10 & PB14

STELLA: Our first blog post's not bad. This is a great photo, Meera! So, what shall we write about this week? Any ideas?

MEERA: Um, I've got nothing.

LENNY: Oh no! It's quarter past four! The football's on TV. It started at ten past!

STELLA: Oh, football! Oh! Top Talent is on in a minute. Can't we all watch that?

MEERA: Yeah, Lenny. It's on at twenty-five past four. How about that?

STELLA: Perfect!

LENNY: OK. I can also watch the football on my phone!

STELLA: At the same time?

MEERA: Yeah! So we have to stop now.

STELLA: Oh, let's put our books away first.

LENNY: OK – quickly!

STELLA: Phew. Just in time! It's twenty past four.

MEERA: Hi, Dad. Can we please change the channel? We want to watch Top Talent.

MR SHARMA: Oh, I'm sorry, Meera. Not now. The golf's on – and you know I love golf!

STELLA: What time does it finish, Mr Sharma?

MR SHARMA: Oh, don't worry. It finishes at twenty to seven!

LENNY: But we have to be home at half past six.

MEERA: Well, we can watch it on catch up another day.

STELLA: Yeah, OK!

LENNY: Now I've got a great idea for our next blog post – TV!

STELLA: Yes! We can't watch TV, but we can write about it.

MR SHARMA: Shhh, please.

LENNY, MEERA AND STELLA: Sorry!

Unit 2 – People at work

 PB18 & PB22

LENNY: OK, so, Meera, what are we going to write about on our blog this week?

MEERA: I don't know. Have you got any ideas for our blog this week, Lenny?

LENNY: Umm ... No, but let's have a look around the job exhibition and we'll think about it. Oh! Look at this – a nurse. That's an interesting job! I think I'm going to be a nurse when I'm older.

STELLA: Hmm, a nurse? That's great, Lenny. I think I'm going to be a dentist.

LENNY: A dentist? I thought you always wanted to be a doctor.

STELLA: Maybe I can be a doctor and a dentist!

LENNY: What are you going to be, Meera?

MEERA: I'm not sure, but I'm going to have an exciting job.

MEERA: Woah!

TEACHER: Everyone needs to leave the school building now, please. Walk quickly. Don't run.

LENNY: Gosh! It wasn't the video.

STELLA: Yeah, I thought it was the video, too! I hope the school isn't going to burn down.

MEERA: Are we going to see some real firefighters?

LENNY: Oh, come on Meera! It's only a practice!

MEERA: Oh, well, it's a really exciting job. I'm going to be a fire fighter.

STELLA: Well, now we know what we're going to write about for this week's blog post!

Kid's Box Video Scripts

LENNY: Yeah! Jobs!

MEERA: Yes! Let's write about jobs!

STELLA: Yes! We're going to win that prize!

LENNY AND MEERA: Oh Stella!

Unit 3 – City life

 PB29 & PB32

STELLA: Our blog post about London is going to be great!

LENNY: Thanks for coming with us, Mr Sharma!

MR SHARMA: That's OK kids. Now, we have to be back before half past five for the train, so don't get lost!

MEERA: No problem, Dad. It's ... ten past two, so we should have more than three hours.

STELLA: Great. We want to get some interesting information for our blog. Where shall we go first?

LENNY: It says here that Tower Bridge is the most famous bridge in London. Let's go there.

MEERA: Dad, how do we get to Tower bridge?

MR SHARMA: Here you go, Meera! You ... can find it yourself!

MEERA: What's that, Dad?

MR SHARMA: It's a map.

LENNY: No, er, this is a map.

MR SHARMA: No, Lenny, not today. No phones today. Let's have some fun!

STELLA: OK, let's have a look at the map. How do we get there?

LENNY: We're standing outside a shop.

MR SHARMA: That is here.

STELLA: So, we have to go straight along this street. We don't go across the river. We turn left here at the sports shop. Let's go!

STELLA: OK, so now we're at a corner. Do we want to go left or right, Meera?

MEERA: Erm ... I don't know.

LENNY: We need to take the third street on the right, and we walk past this park.

MR SHARMA: Er, guys, turn the map round! I think we're going in the wrong direction!

STELLA: Excuse me. Can you tell us how to get to Tower Bridge, please?

WOMAN: Look, dear. It's right across the street. It's behind that big building.

Unit 4 – Disaster

 PB36 & PB40

MR STAR: It all happened so quickly. Yeah, everyone's safe. Mmhmm. Yeah ...

MEERA: That. Was. Amazing!

STELLA: It was really scary as well, Meera.

REPORTER: Well, hello, children. Are you OK, now? Are you getting warm?

LENNY, MEERA AND STELLA: Yes!

REPORTER: Can you tell me what happened?

STELLA: It was hot and sunny this morning, so we decided to sail to the small island for a picnic with my dad.

MEERA: Yeah ... look!

LENNY: We were sailing to the island when the sky went dark.

STELLA: Yeah. Dad was listening to the radio. They said a storm was coming!

REPORTER: What were you doing when the storm began?

MEERA: We were looking after Lenny because he wasn't feeling very well.

LENNY: Thanks, Meera.

REPORTER: Why didn't you go back to the beach?

STELLA: Because we were very near the island. So we decided to wait there for the weather to get better.

MEERA: But it didn't. The storm got worse.

LENNY: Yeah, we were walking up the beach, to find somewhere safe, when lightning hit the boat and it caught fire!

REPORTER: Did you get a picture of the fire?

MEERA: No! We couldn't take any pictures – we were running away!

STELLA: We couldn't leave the island, so Dad had to phone for help.

LENNY: Yeah, at first it didn't work. But then he tried again, and it was OK.

REPORTER: Were you afraid?

LENNY, MEERA AND STELLA: Yes!

MEERA: But it was really exciting when the helicopter came to get us!

LENNY: Yeah, it was great!

REPORTER: What a disaster!

MEERA: Now we've got a new idea for our blog – disasters!

LENNY AND STELLA: Yes!

REPORTER: I'm Jenny, this is Kid's Box News.

Unit 5 – Material things

 PB46 & PB50

MEERA: Ooh, look at this sweet shop! It's fantastic!
STELLA: Yeah, and it's all made of brick.
LENNY: Come on Stella!
STELLA: In a minute.
MEERA: Wow! Look at these eggs! They're made of white chocolate. It's fantastic.
LENNY: Let's buy some sweets!
STELLA: Aha! Do you like my new teeth?
SHOPKEEPER: Ahem! Excuse me!
STELLA: Oops, er, sorry! Have you got a bag please?
LENNY: Nice one, Stella!
MEERA: Ugh. They're horrible. What are they made of?
STELLA: They're made of sugar. They're great!
LENNY: Look, there's a joke shop! Come on!
MEERA: Ooh, look! These snakes are made of rubber. They're fantastic.
LENNY: Yeah! Ooh, I think I want to buy one of these spiders. They're made of fur.
STELLA: Really? I don't think anybody's going to be afraid of those.
MEERA: Agh! Look out, Stella! There is a big black spider on your shoulder!
STELLA: No, there isn't.
LENNY: Oh, yes, there is! That spider isn't made of fur, Stella. It's real!
STELLA: Aagghhh!
LENNY: It's OK. We were joking – but you were afraid!
STELLA: Well, now I've got a great idea for our next blog post. Let's find out what things are made of.
MEERA: Stella, you're a star!

Unit 6 – Senses

 PB54 & PB58

TEACHER: In this week's science club we're going to look at the five senses. First, we're going to look at the sense of touch.
MEERA: Stella, put your hand in the box. What does it feel like?
STELLA: It's very soft. It feels like fur. Is it an animal?
LENNY: No, Stella. It's my toy spider.
STELLA: Not again. Very funny.

LENNY: Hey Meera, listen to this!

MEERA: Yikes! That's horrible. It sounds like someone's falling down the stairs!

LENNY: Well, I like it.

MEERA: What's wrong with your sense of hearing Lenny?

TEACHER: That's me and my band!

STELLA: That's ... err... cool.

TEACHER: Now we're exploring the sense of smell. What does this smell like, Stella?

STELLA: That smells terrible! It smells like Lenny's socks!

LENNY: Oi!

MEERA: Well, it's strong blue cheese, Stella.

TEACHER: And now the sense of taste. What does this taste like, Lenny?

LENNY: It tastes like ... pineapple. I like pineapple on my pizza.

STELLA: Now let's find out how to make the perfect pizza for our next blog post.

MEERA: Yes, nice one, Stella!

Unit 7 – Natural world

 PB64 & PB68

STELLA: We've only got two more days to write our next blog post – and we haven't got any ideas. What shall we write about?

LENNY: I haven't got anything.

MEERA: Me neither. It's a lovely day outside! Why don't we go for a walk?

STELLA: Yeah, good idea! It's very sunny, so we should put our hats on.

MEERA: You're right! The sun's very strong. I think we should put some sun cream on, too. Here you are.

STELLA: Thanks Meera!

STELLA: It's not very sunny anymore!

LENNY: Look over there! What's that woman doing? Let's go see.

STELLA: Yes, let's!

MEERA: Yeah.

STELLA: Excuse me!

PARK RANGER: Yes?

STELLA: Can you tell us what you're doing?

PARK RANGER: Sure. I'm taking the glass bottles and plastic bags out of the water, because they're dangerous for wild animals. I have to do this every week.

LENNY: Wild animals! Here? Which wild animals?

Kid's Box Video Scripts

PARK RANGER: Don't worry, I'm talking about fish and wild birds. Plastic bags and bottles in the water are a big problem for them.

MEERA: That's terrible! People shouldn't leave their rubbish on the grass or throw it in the lake.

LENNY: So, what should they do with it?

PARK RANGER: They should look for a recycling bin ... or take their rubbish home with them.

STELLA: And what can we do about this? Can we do anything to help?

PARK RANGER: Most people know that this is dangerous for birds and other animals, but they don't understand that they need to change what they're doing.

LENNY: We should talk to our friends and family about this.

MEERA: Yeah. And we can write about it in our blog.

STELLA: Yeah! Come on! We've got a job to do.

PARK RANGER: Yes, you do. Good luck!

LENNY, MEERA AND STELLA: Thank you, goodbye!

PARK RANGER: Goodbye.

HEADTEACHER: Well done, Sarah. You've won this year's fitness competition! Now, I have the names here of the winners of the school blog competition. They are Meera, Stella and Lenny for the Kid's Box blog.

MEERA: Yes!

STELLA: We've done it! We've done it!

LENNY: This is the first time I've won a prize!

STELLA: Well, I think we should celebrate. Let's write one more blog post. Let's do it on sport!

LENNY: Cool.

Unit 8 – World of sport

 PB72 & PB76

TEACHER: As you know, today's the school prize day. But first, we're going to have our yearly fitness challenge. For this year's fitness challenge, competitors will need to ... cycle 500 metres, jump over the mats, walk along the bench and climb over the wall. Then later we're going to give the prize to the winners of the blog competition. Right. Now, competitors need to go to their bikes.

MEERA: Good luck in the race, Lenny!

STELLA: Have you ever won a sports prize?

LENNY: No, I've never won any prizes!

TEACHER: Ready? Set ... GO!

MEERA: He's doing really well.

STELLA: Yeah! He's jumped over the mats ... and he's walked along the bench, but he hasn't climbed over the wall. Come on, Lenny! You've nearly finished!

MEERA AND STELLA: Go, Lenny, Go!

BOY: Oh no! I can't do it!

STELLA: What's he doing? He's ... stopping. I can't believe it! He's gone back! He's lost the race.

MEERA: No, Stella, he hasn't lost the race. He's stopped to help a friend.

STELLA: Oh!
