Welcome unit – Smart technology

 PB4 & PB8

STELLA: Hi Meera, how are you?
MEERA: I'm fine thanks Stella. Where's Lenny?
STELLA: There he is! Come on Lenny, back to school!
LENNY: Hi guys!
MEERA: Are we going to meet after school? Shall we meet here at 4 o'clock?
STELLA: I can't today Meera, I have to take my books back to the library.
LENNY: Me too. But we can go to your house after that.
MEERA: OK! Meet you there!
STELLA: Oh, Lenny!
LENNY: Just a minute. I've got a message from Meera. Come to my house quickly. Very important.
STELLA: Very important? Come on, then Lenny! Let's go!
STELLA: What is it, Meera? What's so important?
MEERA: Look at this. There's a new blog competition online.
LENNY: National blog competition. Prize: new tablets for everyone in your class.
STELLA: Oh yeah! We can write the best blog in the country. Oh, and the winners of this competition can enter an international blog competition next year. We're going to write the best blog in the world!
MEERA: Ok well ... maybe, but for now let's write something for this competition and win those new tablets for our class.
LENNY: Why don't we do our first blog on technology?
STELLA: Great idea, Lenny! That sounds very exciting!

Unit 1 – Beastly tales

 PB10 & PB14

MEERA: School play. King of the Beasts. Actors needed. Auditions – Wednesday, quarter to four.
STELLA: That sounds fun. I'd like to be an actor. I'm going to go to the audition.
MEERA: That's a great idea. You love going to the theatre.
LENNY: So ... what part are you going to do in the audition, Stella?
STELLA: I want to be the clever monkey – of course!
MEERA: OK, cool! Go for it!
LENNY: Good luck with your audition, Stella.
MEERA: Don't worry, Stella, you're not by yourself. We're right here with you!

STELLA: This baby lion is going to be ... err ... King of the ... animals!

LENNY: King of the Beasts.

STELLA: Oh, yes! Umm ... is going to be ... King of the Beasts!

HEAD TEACHER: Thank you Stella.

TEACHER: I'm sorry, Stella, but we aren't going to choose you for the monkey. But we do have another part for you if you're interested?

STELLA: Really? Thanks very much!

LENNY: So, are you still going to be in the play?

STELLA: Oh, yes. I got a part. I'm going to be ... a singing tree!

LENNY: Well, I think you're good at singing.

MEERA: Oh, well. you're not going to be a famous actor anymore.

STELLA: No. I'm going to be a famous writer, starting with that blog competition! So, what are we going to write about this time?

LENNY: Well, not King of the Beasts!

MEERA: No, but there are some older stories about other really exciting beasts. Let's do that!

STELLA: Great!

LENNY: Yeah!

Unit 2 – Tomorrow's world

 PB18 & PB22

STELLA: Hi Meera, what are you doing?
MEERA: I'm making a rocket. Look, it's almost finished.
LENNY: Wow, a rocket! That's the transport of the future. Soon there won't be any buses or cars – we'll all travel by air.
STELLA: Or we'll walk. We'll still have legs!
LENNY: Will it fly?
MEERA: I'm sure it will. No problem. Watch.
STELLA: You only need to put a little of this in the water and it'll fly. Everyone, put your glasses on.
LENNY: How far will it go?
MEERA: It won't go very far.
STELLA: Do you think it'll hit a window, Meera?
MEERA: Nah, I don't think so. It won't go as far as a real rocket, Stella.
MR SHARMA: Meera, can you be more careful please?
MEERA: Er, sorry, Dad. I'll get more information about rockets next time.
MR SHARMA: Yes, please do.
LENNY: Phew!

Kid's Box Video Scripts

STELLA: Well, now we've got something to write our blog about!

LENNY: Yeah, transport of the future.

Unit 3 – The great outdoors

 PB29 & PB32

MEERA: Woah.

STELLA: Look at Lenny. Oh, dear!

LENNY: Hi, everyone.

MEERA: What's the matter with your arm, Lenny?

LENNY: I broke it last Saturday.

STELLA: How did that happen? How did you do that?

LENNY: Well, on Saturday morning, my dad and I were walking up a really big hill. What an adventure! I was jumping when I fell.

STELLA: So, were you playing when you broke your arm?

LENNY: No, I wasn't playing Stella, and that wasn't when I broke my arm. We were in the wood and we had to cross a really fast river. We were walking across the bridge when I put my foot through a hole and fell again.

MEERA: And is that how you broke your arm?

LENNY: Well ... no, Meera. When I got home, I was standing on one foot to take off my dirty boot and fell over.

MR NELSON: Oh, Lenny!

LENNY: Oh Dad, it really hurts.

MR NELSON: Oh dear. Come on, let's get you to the hospital. I think you might need an X-ray.

MEERA AND STELLA: And that's how you broke your arm!

LENNY: Yeah!

STELLA: You call that an adventure?

MEERA: Yeah, OK, well let's write about some other adventures for our blog.

LENNY: Yes! Well, I can't write – so Stella, you can write this blog!

STELLA: No problem!

Unit 4 – Food, glorious food

 PB36 & PB40

TEACHER: As part of our international food project, we'll be making Tarte Tatin next Thursday afternoon. You will need ...

LENNY: We'll make what?

STELLA: Tarte Tatin. That's a kind of apple cake in French.

LENNY: Wow – I didn't know you could speak French, Stella.

MEERA: Yeah, she's having lessons.

TEACHER: So, decide in your groups who's going to bring the flour, the apples and the sugar.

STELLA: So, let's make that Tarte Tatin!

MEERA: Let's see what we've got first. I've got a big bag of apples.

LENNY: I've got two bags of apples. I think we've got ... too many apples.

STELLA: Look, we've got three kilos of sugar too. We've got too much!

MEERA: Have we got enough flour? I've only got a little bit.

STELLA: Er, I haven't got any.

LENNY: I haven't got any flour either.

STELLA: Oh, dear. We haven't got enough flour.

MEERA: There's only one egg! Now we haven't got enough eggs either.

LENNY: So, we've got too much sugar and too many apples. We don't have enough flour or eggs. What are we going to do?

STELLA: Can we borrow some eggs and flour, please?

CLASSMATE: Sorry. We haven't got enough.

TEACHER: Well, you can't make anything this afternoon, so you'll have to watch the others.

STELLA: If you want, we can write about international food in our blog.

LENNY: Cool, why not?

MEERA: Yeah, fine. Does anyone want an apple?

STELLA: Yeah, why not?

Unit 5 – Under the sea

 PB46 & PB50

MEERA: Have you thought of anything for our blog this month?

STELLA: No, nothing.

LENNY: We've talked about different ideas for two weeks and we still haven't chosen a topic.

MEERA: Well, let's not think about that now. Let's go and enjoy our Saturday afternoon.

LENNY: Yeah, let's watch TV.

MEERA: Hi Dad, what's happening there? Is that a whale?

MR SHARMA: No, they found a dolphin on the beach. The rescue people have been there since ten o'clock. They think it's lost its mother.

STELLA: So, what have the rescue people done to help it?

MR SHARMA: Look! They've moved it onto a big blanket, and they've put water on it as it mustn't get dry.

LENNY: Wow! I've never seen a dolphin before. Has it been on the sand for a long time?

MEERA: Hey!

STELLA: Lenny! Get out of the way! We can't see!

Kid's Box Video Scripts

MR SHARMA: Yes, it has. The dolphin's been there for about three hours.

MEERA: Has it eaten anything yet?

MR SHARMA: No, it hasn't. And neither have I!

LENNY: But look what the rescue people are doing now!

MEERA: Lenny!

STELLA: We can't see!

MEERA: Look! They've pulled the dolphin back out to sea.

STELLA: Phew. They've rescued it. That's good.

LENNY: Yes, it is. How exciting!

MR SHARMA: Yes, it was. And now you have something to write for your blog – sea life!

LENNY: Yeah!

STELLA: Great idea!

MEERA: Thanks Dad.

MR SHARMA: You're welcome. Now, why don't you go away and start it?

LENNY, MEERA AND STELLA: Yeah!

Unit 6 – Free time

 PB54 & PB58

LENNY: I'm so bored. Everything's wet outside. I want to play football, but there's nowhere to play.

MEERA: Yeah, and there's nothing to do in the classroom.

STELLA: So, you need to think of something to do then, don't you?

LENNY: Oh! I have an idea. We haven't tried table tennis!

STELLA: You haven't got anywhere in the classroom to play table tennis, Lenny! Get some books and read.

MEERA: That's it – books! Stella, can I please borrow a book?

STELLA: OK.

MEERA: Now we've got everything we need. Books, desk and ... a ball!

LENNY: Meera's invented a great game.

STELLA: My book.

LENNY: Come on Stella, it's fun!

MEERA: Does anyone else want to play?

BOY: I do! Can I hit the ball?

STELLA: Yeah, sure!

LENNY: Look! Someone's coming!

TEACHER: That's a strange hobby! I'm sorry, but you can't play table tennis in here. Put the desks back everyone, and go outside! Find somewhere else to play, please. It's stopped raining now.

MEERA: Come on. Here, catch, Stella!

LENNY: Well, now we have something to write about – different hobbies!

Unit 7 – Fashion sense

 PB64 & PB68

LENNY: So ... What are you guys going to wear to the disco this week?

MEERA: Hmm, I don't know. I might wear jeans and a T-shirt, or I might wear a shirt. What about you?

LENNY: I don't know, I haven't decided. Stella?

STELLA: I'm going to wear my new dress.

LENNY: Oh!

MEERA: Hi, Mr Nelson, is Lenny ready yet?

MR NELSON: Hmm, you might need to wait. Please come in. Er, Lenny!

LENNY: In a minute!

LENNY: Does this look OK?

MEERA: You might want to change your shirt.

LENNY: What about this?

MEERA: Er, yeah! That's OK! I think it may look better with a jacket.

LENNY: But it's not cold. I might not need a jacket.

STELLA: Come on! Hurry up! You look great.

LENNY: I feel like a rock star!

MEERA: Yeah, and you look like a rock star, now let's go!

TEACHER: You may want to put your jackets over there.

TEACHER: Lenny! Nice shirt!

MEERA: Smile!

LENNY: Thanks, Meera.

STELLA: Oh, Lenny, you may feel like a rock star, but you look like a teacher.

LENNY: As you're so interested in clothes and fashion, why don't you write about it on our next blog post?

MEERA: Clothes and fashion? Yeah!

STELLA: Yeah!

Unit 8 – Around the world

 PB72 & PB76

STELLA: Meera, have you found any good photos?

MEERA: I've already found four good photos, but I need two more. Have you two written the article on Mexico yet?

LENNY: Hm?

STELLA: I've started it, but I haven't finished it yet.

MEERA: Come on Lenny! Do your work! Help us!

STELLA: Oh Lenny! I've just tidied my desk. Be careful!

STELLA: Wait! I haven't saved the article yet!

LENNY: They've just given the names of the blog competition winners!

Kid's Box Video Scripts

STELLA: Ooh!

LENNY: Got it! Here's the website. I can't see the list of winners.

MEERA: So ... have we won?

LENNY: I can't see anything.

MEERA: Look, we have to click that link! Stella, drop your pencils, come look!

LENNY: Look! Here's Britain! And ... Kid's Box blog! Yes! We've won!

MEERA AND STELLA: Yes!

MEERA: Stella! You've just tidied your pencils!

STELLA: Pencils? What pencils? We've just won new tablets for everyone in our class!

MEERA: Who else won?

LENNY: The other winners are from Spain, Japan, Greece and India.

STELLA: Now we're going to enter the international blog competition – and we're going to win that too!

MEERA: OK, Stella! Sit down! Let's find out more about different countries.

LENNY: Yeah!

STELLA: Let's do it!
