Q: Skills for Success
Third Edition

Unit Assignment: Write a proposal for a business

Date: _____

Writer: _____

Peer Editor: _____

Title: _____

1. Circle the topic sentence. Does it introduce the business and the product or service? Write one or two questions about the business that will help you understand the writer's proposal.

2. Underline a detail that comes from the readings. Write a suggestion for another place where the writer can use information from the readings.

3. Circle words from the reading that give information about emotions. Write down any other words you can suggest, including words with suffixes that can help describe how colors make people feel.

4. Does the writer provide context that helps readers “see” the colors? For example, bright or dark with blue can change the reader’s impression. Do you have comments or questions that can help the writer be more specific in his or her description?

5. Circle an example of the future with will. Is it used as a prediction or result? Write a question with Will or How will that helps the writer think about the effects of color on customers or the future of the business.

6. After reading the writer’s ideas, imagine that you have a chance to invest in this business. What questions would you ask? What suggestions would you give? Write them below.
